

WISCONSIN SKILL STANDARDS CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Enhancing 21st Century Skills

Wisconsin's Cooperative Education Skill Standards Certificate Program is designed in partnership with business, industry and labor representatives, and educators around the integration of school-based and work-based learning and appropriate career development experiences.

Certificates Available 2011-2012:

- Employability Skills New for 2011*
- Youth Leadership Pilot for 2011*
- Agribusiness
- Business
- Child Services including ACCT & Infant Toddler*
- Construction
- Electronics
- Family & Community Services
- Food Service New for 2011*
- Health Science
- Marketing

For more information:

www.dpi.wi.gov/cte/cteskills.html

The benefits to your students...

- Assists students in transitioning from secondary to post-secondary education
- Attainment of a state-approved skill certificate program with 21st century skills
- Integrates work-based, school-based and community-based components to ensure students are college & career ready

The benefits to your school, district and community...

- Enhances business and education partnerships
- Provides business and industry with qualified entry-level employees
- Gains notoriety for the CTE programs within the district

Register your students for a State Certified Skill Standards Program TODAY!

Contact the Skill Standards Administrator about implementing one or more of the Skill Standard Certificate Programs in your school today!

Sara Baird, Skill Standards Administrator
Education Consultant
Email: sara.baird@dpi.wi.gov