

Save
April 29, 2009

Annual Parent Leadership Conference

Building Partnerships for Student Success

Monona Terrace, Madison

Keynote Speaker: Karen Mapp

What kinds of family-school-community partnerships improve student achievement? Karen Mapp, co-author of the book, "Beyond the Bake Sale," presents strategies for schools to engage families of all backgrounds to help children achieve school success.

What Will You Learn?

Learn how to work together to

- Develop and sustain child-centered partnerships
- Build positive relationships among families and school staff
- Enhance learning at home and in the community
- Build awareness of resources to help children succeed.

Registration Fee: $20.00 per person

Who should attend?

- Parents, Teachers, Administrators, other School Staff, Community Members from any District or School seeking to improve through Family-Community Partnerships
- Title I schools
- National Network of Partnership School members
- REACH (Responsive Education for All Children) teams
- VISTA schools

Bring a team of three or more (at least one parent) and receive a free book!

Register online at <http://www.regonline.com/Checkin.asp?EventId=675032>

Flyer printed courtesy of WEAC

For more information contact Jane Grinde at 608-266-9356 or jane.grinde@dpi.wi.gov or Shirley Moutry at 414-227-1846 or 608-266-3945 or shirley.moutry@dpi.wi.gov